Approved For Release 2002/08/15 : CA-RDP88-08445R010500100004-9

SECRET/CONTROL - US OFFICIALS ONLY

This document consists of two photostated copies of a 10-page report 1951, compiled by the Goelzau Combine, Weissandt-Goelzau. The report is series of tables and lists, with entries and remarks in both German and information as follows:  1) Planned 1951 personnel strength, actual 1951 personnel strength and planned 1952 personnel requirements for: a) total labor force, and t gories of personnel, b) high-level technical personnel, subdivided acco al background; number of technical personnel with Doctorates, engineers gineers without degrees who attended technical schools, engineers and the degrees and with practical experience only, and Meister (Master-technici occupational categories.  2) A table, giving information on skilled workers in the plant, bro number of personnel in each type of skilled occupation, INMILIANIANIANIANIANIANIANIANIANIANIANIANIANI		ECURITY INFORMATION		25X1A
This document consists of two photostated copies of a 10-page repor 1951, compiled by the Goelzau Combine, Weissandt-Goelzau. The report is series of tables and lists, with entries and remarks in both German and information as follows:  1) Planned 1951 personnel strength, actual 1951 personnel strength and planned 1952 personnel requirements for: a) total labor force, and t gories of personnel (workers, office employees, apprentices, and key adm technical personnel); b) high-level technical personnel, subdivided accord background: number of technical personnel with Doctorates, engineers gineers without degrees who attended technical schools, engineers and te degrees and with practical experience only, and Meister (Master-technical occupational categories,  2) A table, giving information on skilled workers in the plant, bro number of personnel in each type of skilled occupation, INTEXTEXTEXTEXTEXTEXTEXTEXTEXTEXTEXTEXTEXT	rman Democratic Republic		FDD Abstract	25X1A
1951, compiled by the Goelzau Combine, Weissandt-Goelzau. The report is series of tables and lists, with entries and remarks in both German and information as follows:  1) Planned 1951 personnel strength, actual 1951 personnel strength and planned 1952 personnel requirements for: a) total labor force, and t gories of personnel (workers, office employees, apprentices, and key adm technical personnel); b) high-level technical personnel, subdivided acco al background: number of technical personnel with Doctorates, engineers gineers without degrees who attended technical schools, engineers and te degrees and with practical experience only, and Meister (Master-technici occupational categories.  2) A table, giving information on skilled workers in the plant, bro number of personnel in each type of skilled occupation, INMINIALINIAL STREAMS  STREAMS  3) A table of positions occupied by engineering, technical, and exe tive personnel, which is set up as follows: a) designation of position; of individuals occupying each type of position; c) educational backgroun as specified under (lb); d) total vacancies for each type of position, w according to the required educational qualifications; e) grand total for l) A table showing sources from which the additional requirements f technical personnel are to be covered. The table is subdivided as follo of specialists from higher technical schools, colleges, and universities tracts. Information is given under the following headings: name and loc field of specialists from higher technical schools, colleges, and universities tracts. Information is given under the following headings: name and loc field of specialists from higher technical schools, colleges, and universities tracts. Information is given on: fluration of apprenticeship; field of sumber of students completing apprenticeship training in 1951 and 1952.  5) Detailed comments on training and vocational education offered by practical and theoretical training of apprentices; b) supplementation of ledge of plant specialists	RSONNEL STRENGTH, REQUIREME	ts, and training at the G	OELZAU COMBINE (21	pp: German/Russia
1951, compiled by the Goelzau Combine, Weissandt-Goelzau. The report is series of tables and lists, with entries and remarks in both German and information as follows:  1) Planned 1952 personnel strength, actual 1951 personnel strength and planned 1952 personnel requirements for: a) total labor force, and t gories of personnel (workers, office employees, apprentices, and key adm technical personnel); b) high-level technical personnel, subdivided acco al background: number of technical personnel with Doctorates, engineers gineers without degrees who attended technical schools, engineers and te degrees and with practical experience only, and Meister (Master-technici occupational categories.  2) A table, giving information on skilled workers in the plant, bro number of personnel in each type of skilled occupation, INMIXINGIALNIAN INTERMIXENT  3) A table of positions occupied by engineering, technical, and exe tive personnel, which is set up as follows: a) designation of position; of individuals occupying each type of position; c) educational backgroun as specified under (lb); d) total vacancies for each type of position, waccording to the required educational qualifications; e) grand total for la) A table showing sources from which the additional requirements f technical personnel are to be covered. The table is subdivided as follo of specialists from higher technical schools, colleges, and universities tracts. Information is given under the following headings: name and loc field of specialization; number of students under contract with plant for monthly stipend paid each student. b) Procurement of specialists from p school. Information is given on: furnation of apprenticeship; field of s number of students completing apprenticeship training in 1951 and 1952.  5) Detailed comments on training and vocational education offered b practical and theoretical training of apprentices; b) supplementation of ledge of plant specialists by plant-sponsored lectures and advanced technical description of new measures to be taken gineers without degrees who attended technical schools, engineers and te degrees and with practical experience only, and Meister (Master-technici occupational categories.  2) A table, giving information on skilled workers in the plant, bro number of personnel in each type of skilled occupation, INMIXIMIXIMIXIMIXIMIXIMIXIMIXIMIXIMIXIMI	251, compiled by the Goelzau cries of tables and lists, w aformation as follows: 1) Planned 1951 personned and planned 1952 personnel re- pries of personnel (workers, echnical personnel); b) high	Combine, Weissandt-Goelza th entries and remarks in strength, actual 1951 pe uirements for: a) total 1 office employees, apprent level technical personnel	the report is a both German and Fersonnel strength (Labor force, and the cices, and key admits, subdivided according.	in the form of a dussian, containing (as of 1 July 1951) he four main cate- inistrative and rding to education.
3) A table of positions occupied by engineering, technical, and exetive personnel, which is set up as follows: a) designation of position; of individuals occupying each type of position; c) educational background as specified under (lb); d) total vacancies for each type of position, we according to the required educational qualifications; e) grand total for (l) A table showing sources from which the additional requirements of technical personnel are to be covered. The table is subdivided as follow of specialists from higher technical schools, colleges, and universities tracts. Information is given under the following headings: name and located of specialization; number of students under contract with plant for monthly stipend paid each student. b) Procurement of specialists from packed. Information is given on: Auration of apprenticeship; field of sometical interesting apprenticeship training in 1951 and 1952.  5) Detailed comments on training and vocational education offered by practical and theoretical training of apprentices; b) supplementation of ledge of plant specialists by plant-sponsored lectures and advanced technical feed of plant specialists by plant-sponsored lectures and advanced technical specialists (supplementary theoretical courses for apprentices, etc.).	neers without degrees who a egrees and with practical en cupational categories. (2) A table giving info	tended technical schools, perience only, and Meister mation on skilled workers	engineers and ted (Master-technicia in the plant, brok	chnicians without ans) in various ken down by the technical personnel are to be covered. The table is subdivided as follow of specialists from higher technical schools, colleges, and universities tracts. Information is given under the following headings: name and located of specialization; number of students under contract with plant for monthly stipend paid each student. b) Procurement of specialists from paschool. Information is given on: Auration of apprenticeship; field of some number of students completing apprenticeship training in 1951 and 1952.  5) Detailed comments on training and vocational education offered by practical and theoretical training of apprentices; b) supplementation of ledge of plant specialists by plant-sponsored lectures and advanced technology. Brief description of new measures to be taken by plant in 1951 a specialists (supplementary theoretical courses for apprentices, etc.).	3) A table of positions ive personnel, which is set individuals occupying each specified under (lb); d) according to the required education.	up as follows: a) designate type of position; c) educe tal vacancies for each type ational qualifications; e	tion of position; leational background ype of position, we be) grand total for	b) total number d of occupants, ith breakdown b, c, and d.
practical and theoretical training of apprentices; b) supplementation of ledge of plant specialists by plant-sponsored lectures and advanced tech 6) Brief description of new measures to be taken by plant in 1951 a specialists (supplementary theoretical courses for apprentices, etc.).	echnical personnel are to be specialists from higher to tracts. Information is given leld of specialization; number the stipped paid each stracts. Information is given mber of students completing	covered. The table is such nical schools, colleges, under the following headier of students under controlent. b) Procurement of son: duration of apprentice apprenticeship training in	abdivided as follow, and universities ings: name and locarect with plant for specialists from proceship; field of spin 1951 and 1952.	ws: a) Procurement by means of con- ation of the sck oo r 1951 and 1952; lant's vocational pecialization;
	5) Detailed comments on ractical and theoretical tradge of plant specialists by 6) Brief description of	training and vocational edining of apprentices; b) s plant-sponsored lectures new measures to be taken b	ducation offered by supplementation of and advanced technology plant in 1951 and the control of	technical know- nical schooling.
Foreign language document or microfilm of it is available f	Foreign language document or	microfilm of it	is available fr	rom CI A libysy 25X1A
25X1A 29 Febru		5X1A	29 Februa	ary 1952